

A BILL FOR BINDING (17th century).

Harmony of the World, by Haydon : London, 1642. Bound in the very best manner; the book sewed in the very best manner with white silk, very strong, and will open easy; very neat and strong boards; fine drawing paper inside stained to suit the colour of the book. The outsides finished in the Rosie-Crucian taste - very correct measured work. The inside finished in the Druid taste, with Acorns and SS. studded with Stars, Etc., in the most magnificent manner. So neat, strong, and elegant as this book is bound, the binding is well worth 13s; and the inlaying the frontispiece, cleaning and mending, is worth 2s. To Dr. Mosely's great goodness, I am much indebted, that my gratitude sets the price for binding, inlaying, cleaning, and mending at only ..... 0/10/6d.
