

VANCOUVER C.P.R.

In all the wide range of industrial pursuits there is not a more interesting occupation than that of the bookseller, upon which the education of the masses and the enlightenment of the citizens of the country in a large measure depend.

— THE NEW WEST (1888)