

Robert R. Reid Medal

PRINTER, DESIGNER AND typographer Robert R. Reid was the first recipient of the award that bears his name on November 16, 2007. The accompanying medal, designed by Robert Chaplin and cast by Jess Sarber, had yet to be struck. The first medal presented to a recipient of the Robert R. Reid Award was presented to Reid at the Alcuin Society annual general meeting on June 13, 2011.

Pages from the award citation presented to Robert R. Reid (above); the Robert R. Reid medal (right); Robert R. Reid receives the medal that bears his name from Alcuin Society president Howard Greaves (below). Photos by Jason Vanderhill.

Barbara Hodgson

VANCOUVER AUTHOR AND artist Barbara Hodgson is a book designer with a degree in archaeology and a diploma in graphic design. She began her career in book design by working for Douglas & McIntyre, moving from freelance designer to art director prior to taking on freelance work for other publishers. Designing books led to writing books. Her books are unique in that they combine her writing with a multitude of illustrations of various types drawn from a wide range of sources, including engravings, lithographs, photographs, stereo cards, postcards, movie stills, and pulp magazine and novel covers. She discussed her latest project, The WunderCabinet, a joint project with the talented bookbinder Claudia Cohen (Heavenly Monkey, 2011), at the annual general meeting of the Alcuin Society on June 13, 2011.

Barbara Hodgson's WunderCabinet. Photos by Jason Vanderhill.

