

DEPARTMENTS

LETTERS . . . . .	2
NEWS & NOTES . . . . .	4
A major donation of equestrian books kicks off a new research program at the University of Alberta; an excerpt from Nick Bantock's new novel, Windflower; Gold discovered 45 years late; Amphora archive project; new members; bookplates from the Library of Rideau Hall.
TRENDS IN COLLECTING . . . . .	5
Collecting Man Booker Prize winners, Part II: The Wrath of Rushdie .
THE ROYAL PICK . . . . .	7
Some choice items culled from recently issued catalogues from around the world. By John King.
EX LIBRIS . . . . .	8
Selections from the world of bookplate art. An ongoing series curated by Ralph Stanton.
HAVE YOU READ? . . . . .	9
A quick summary of recently published articles that might be of interest. By Howard Greaves.
BOOKSELLING . . . . .	10
Regina bookseller Richard Spafford talks about attitude.
LINKED: BEMBO'S ZOO . . . . .	35
A great Web site for typophiles, including those just discovering the alphabet.
BOOK REVIEWS . . . . .	40
A Gathering of Flowers from Shakespeare; The Janus Press – 50 Years; Kotzwinkle's The Amphora Project; Teresa Monachino's Words Fail Me.
OBITUARY . . . . .	44
West Vancouver bookseller David Moon (1923–2006). By Terry Stillman.
Cover art by Barbara Hodgson.

IN THIS ISSUE

COVER FEATURE: THE FORGER AT MANUTIUS PRESS . . .	20
Barbara Hodgson's illustrated account of an elaborate nine-month hoax perpetrated on friend Nick Bantock shortly after the publication of Griffin &amp; Sabine .
THE SAVOY COCKTAIL BOOK . . . . .	12
An art nouveau treasure discovered amidst the clutter. By Howard Greaves.
THE GREAT HUNT FOR GOVERNOR GENERAL'S LITERARY AWARD WINNERS . . . . .	14
The story behind the only complete collection of winners in existence. By Maurie Barrett.
THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S LITERARY AWARDS (HAVE YOU READ ANY?) . . . . .	16
As in so many endeavours, Canadians seem to delight in dismissing their national literary award. Bookseller John Meier warns critics and gasbags to do their reading first.
A LIMITED FEMINIST RESPONSE . . . . .	17
Bookseller Stephen Lunsford discovers an unrecorded limited edition of the first book to use the word "feminist."
FEATURED ARTIST: MARIKO ANDO SPENCER . . . . .	18
A new kids' book featuring her watercolours, and the debut publication of the artist's own story to accompany her etching The King &amp; the Fake Shoemaker .
HALLOWE'EN SPOOKTACULAR
ALPENHOUSE APPARITIONS' POWERS OF BOOK DESIGN . .	26
An established American fine press dares to attempt resurrecting the classic ghost story with contemporary authors. Sutton Hoo Press publisher Chad Oness and partner Boyd White talk about their new imprint, Alpenhouse Apparitions.
THE ARCHITECTURE OF CHARNEL HOUSE . . . . .	32
Charnel House's Joe Steffen figured he couldn't do a worse job than other presses publishing limited editions of contemporary horror and weird fiction, and he hasn't yet. By Rollin Milroy
THE INK RUNS COLD . . . . .	36
Calligrapher Owen Williams is expanding his craft to work with native materials, which in Whitehorse means ice...
ALCUIN GOES EAST . . . . .	38
A report from last summer's panel discussion organized as part of the Alcuin Design Award presentations in Toronto. By Marlene Chan.	