

BCLA Conference Photos

By Sandra Wong.

One of the duties associated with the Editor position for the BCLA Browser is to be responsible for taking photographs at the annual conference for inclusion in the BCLA Browser. All my official conference photos are available at:

<http://www.flickr.com/photos/sandraw12/sets/72157617025817761/>

Attendees with flickr accounts who want to share their own BCLA 2009 conference photos can tag them with "bcla2009". Here are some selected photos from the conference for your enjoyment.

Exhibit hall

Ana Rosa Blue, WorksafeBC, Anne Allgaier, Regional Librarian for Northern Health, and Jane Curry, Vancouver Public Library on opening day in the Exhibit Hall.

Lynne Jordon and Adrienne Wass, both from Greater Victoria Public Library, admire the reusable bags from Pop Packaging.

Jamie Anderson, Thompson Nicola Regional District Library System, and Alane Wilson, BCLA Executive Director, take a short break to pose for a photo on opening day before going back to making sure that the conference runs smoothly.

President's welcoming reception

BCLTA President, Andy Ackerman, provides a warm welcome to guests at the Presidents Welcoming Reception.

Lynne Jordon welcomes special guests Alvin Schraeder and Ken Roberts at the President's Welcoming Reception.

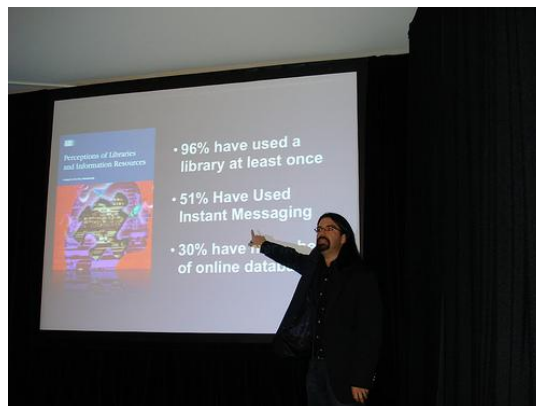

Percilla Groves partakes of the delicious and decadent chocolate fountain.

Plenary session: the hyperlinked library

It was standing room only for the opening plenary session Friday morning.

Michael Stephens recommends the OCLC Perceptions report during his presentation: The Hyperlinked Library.

All delegates post awards dance

Conference organizers Christine Middlemass and Heather Comepeau get the party started on the dance floor.

Librarians and library trustees boogie the night away.

Sandra Wong is a science liaison librarian at Simon Fraser University Library.