

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

We are pleased to release our 2016 issue featuring articles and creative works from faculty members and graduate students in SFU's faculty of education.

Our ongoing mission is to make visible the scholarship of our diverse faculty, and to offer graduate students an opportunity to gain experience with the peer review process as authors and reviewers.

In the new year, we will be switching to a continuous submission cycle, meaning you can submit your piece at anytime during the year. The review process will take 3 to 4 months from the date of submission.

If you have any questions, or would like to learn more about how to get involved with the Ed Review, visit our website or contact us at sfuedreview@gmail.com.

We hope you'll have a lovely holiday season, and look forward to receiving your submissions in the new year.

All the best from your editorial team,

Dominic Trevisan
