

(IN)ANIMATE

SEPIDEH SAI, JAIMIE ROBSON and MAYA ERSAN

The following drawings portray (In)Animate, a live animation and shadow puppet performance by Maya Ersan, Jaimie Robson and Sepideh Saii. Each artist has attempted to sketch, from memory, the performance that took place five years ago as a part of Spatial Poetics V. These drawings were used as a memory-work to recall details of their spontaneous and short-lived piece. A combination of diagrams documents the way each individual artist utilizes image and text to represent the act of performance. The exquisite corpse drawings of the puppets serve as representations of their now fragmented and fading memories.
